If the person was born outside of Canada the enumerator will enter the name of the country (not city, town or state) in which he or she was born. Since it is essential that each foreign born person be credited to the country in which his birthplace is now located, special attention must be given to the six countries which lost a part of their territory in the readjustments following the World War. These six countries are as follows:— Austria which lost territory to Czechoslovakia, Italy, Yugoslavia, Poland and Rumania. Hungary, which lost territory to Austria, Czechoslovakia, Italy, Poland, Rumania, and Yugoslavia. Bulgaria, which lost territory to Greece and Yugoslavia. Germany, which lost territory to Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Danzig, Denmark, France, Lithuania and Poland. Russia, which lost territory to Estonia Finland, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland and Turkey. Turkey, which lost territory to Greece and Italy, and from which the following areas became independent; Iraq (Mesopotamia); Palestine (including Transjordan); Syria (including the Lebanon); and various States and Kingdoms

If the person reports one of these six countries as his place of birth or that of his parents, ask specifically whether the birth place is located within the present area of the country; and if not, find out to what country it has been transferred. If a person was born in the province of Bohemia, for example, which was formerly in Austria but is now a part of Czechoslovakia, the proper return for country of birth is Czechoslovakia. If the enumerator cannot ascertain with certainty the present location of the birthplace, where this group of countries is involved, he should enter in addition to the name of the country, the name of the province or state in which the person was born, as Alsace-Lorraine, Bohemia, Croatia, Galicia, Moravia, Slovakia, etc., or the city as Warsaw, Prague, Strasbourg, etc. If born in British Isles. Instead of Great Britain or British Isles, the particular country should be given, as England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Isle of Man, Channel Islands, Hebrides, Orkneys, Shetlands, etc. 108. Language not evidence of birthplace. The language spoken should not be relied upon to determine birthplace. This is especially true of the German language, for over one-third of the Austrians and nearly three-fourths of the Swiss speak German; it is also spoken by many people in Russia. 109. If born at sea. If the person was born "at sea" his birthplace should be so recorded. 110. Write birthplace in full. Note that “Ulster” should not be reported, as six of its nine counties comprise Northern Ireland and the remaining three are part of the Irish Free State (Eire). (b) Born in Continental Europe. For persons born on the Continent of Europe enter the country of birth as it was constituted in 1936. For persons born on a ship at sea, the Enumerator will enter “at sea” in column 18. (d) The Enumerator will write the name of the various countries of birth in full. If the person reports as his or her birthplace one of the countries which have had changes of boundaries after the first World War, the Enumerator will ask specifically whether or not the birthplace is located within the present area of the country as of 1936; and if not, find out to what country it has been transferred. If the Enumerator cannot find the present location of the birthplace, he should enter in addition to the name of the country, the name of the province or state in which the person was born, as Alsace-Lorraine, Bohemia, Croatia, Galicia, Moravia, Slovakia, etc., or the city, as Warsaw, Prague, Strasbourg, etc.

H. Enumerators' Instructions	If a person was born in Canada indicate the province or territory of birth by marking the appropriate oval in the left-hand column. If the person was born outside Canada mark the country of birth as it is now constituted. This rule has particular bearing for persons born in certain parts of Continental Europe in which there have been recent changes in national boundaries. If the person is uncertain of his country of birth as it is now constituted, he should be asked to give the name of the province or district in which he was born – as Alsace-Lorraine, Bohemia, Slovakia; or the nearest city – as Warsaw, Danzig, Lvov, Trieste, Strasbourg, etc. They should be written in the space provided below the ovals. Be certain to distinguish between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland when marking country of birth. If the respondent is uncertain of the part of Ireland in which he was born, ask him the name of the county of birth. For your guidance the following counties are situated in Northern Ireland: <table> <tr> <td>Antrim,</td><td>Armagh,</td></tr> <tr> <td>Down,</td><td>Fermanagh,</td></tr> <tr> <td>Londonderry,</td><td>Tyrone.</td></tr> </table> All others are situated in the Republic of Ireland. If a person states his place of birth as Ulster this answer cannot be accepted since six of its nine counties comprise Northern Ireland while the remaining three are part of the Republic of Ireland. For a person born on a ship at sea enter "at sea" in the space provided.	Antrim,	Armagh,	Down,	Fermanagh,	Londonderry,	Tyrone.
